About this property

This is a wonderful old Bled Villa, completely restored and improved upon. Lake and island views.

The property was restored and improved in 2005 to a high standard using modern materials yet keeping certain traditional aspects of the house.

It is currently structured as three apartments, one on each floor all facing the Lake and all with either a superb balcony or terrace.

The villa currently has 7 bedrooms, a large bathroom on each floor as well as either a full kitchen or kitchenette on each floor.

The current owners have landscaped the garden to provide a lawn in front of the house with flowerbeds on either side.

With new advanced heating and hot water systems including solar panels the house is well equipped and insulated, Air conditioning has been installed on the top floor.

A new double garage has been built as well as a new driveway and turning area.

The villa could be run as a guest house or as a private residence, most of the furniture will remain and is included in the sale price. This is a very rare opportunity to acquire one of Bled's best villas an early viewing is recommended.
